

Abeyta Nelson Injury Law, one of the leading plaintiff's personal injury law firms in Washington state, is seeking to hire a partnership-track associate. You will have the opportunity to work directly with clients and to work independently faster than at larger firms. A lateral move would be considered.

Established in 1981, Abeyta Nelson is the most experienced and award-winning personal injury law firm in Central Washington. Our law firm employs four attorneys at offices in Yakima, Ellensburg, and Sunnyside, and we have plans to grow. For more information about our firm visit www.abeytanelson.com. We offer a competitive starting salary, opportunities for bonus compensation, a retirement plan, medical, dental, optical, and life insurance, and good mentoring. Advisor

Yakima offers reasonably-priced homes, 300 days of sunshine, four seasons, proximity to mountains, no traffic jams, few lines, a plethora of breweries and wineries, and an expanding restaurant and entertainment scene.